

GRADE 3 TECHNOLOGY EXIT EXPECTATIONS

General

- Knows the difference between a folder and a file
- Is able to follow the command to complete a task as given by the teacher
- Can use and select the appropriate printer
- Can perform simple problem solving techniques
- Is able to work cooperatively with other students in simulations, games, drills, etc.
- Knows how to create a new file
- Knows how to open an existing file
- Knows how to use the built in calculator

Network

- Understands the concept of a network
- Knows how to log on to a network with a username and password

Integration

- Integration of Math into Technology- Solve addition and subtraction facts including regrouping
- Integrate Science into using the computer
- Use the Internet and software programs to integrate English into the Technology Curriculum
- Use the Internet and software programs to integrate Reading and Writing into the Technology Curriculum
- Use the Internet and software programs to integrate Geography into the Technology Curriculum

Art

- Is able to use drawing and painting techniques using the computer
- To be able to import a picture into a document

Business Concepts

- Using advertising techniques and the computer
- Identify use of images and symbols for propaganda and advertising
- Identify oral/written techniques (phrasing, slogans, jungles) used in various forms of media for advertising
- Use a computer simulation to run a business and evaluate the positives and negatives of their business actions

GRADE 3 TECHNOLOGY EXIT EXPECTATIONS

- Can perform simple problem solving techniques

Keyboarding

- Keyboards accurately with both hands on home row at 15-25 wpm
- Memorize the key positions on the keyboard (be able to fill in a blank keyboard with the letters and number keys)

Word Processing

- Can use text editing features of a word processing program
- Can use the computer's print screen function to paste screen shots into documents
- Can use the crop function of Microsoft Word
- To begin the very basics of Word Processing (Font and Colors)

Spreadsheet

- Can construct a simple spreadsheet, enter data, and interpret the information
- Can plot and use different types of charts and graphs from a spreadsheet program